

Medical Assisting Program

Responsibilities of a Medical Assistant

Medical Assistants perform routine administrative and clinical tasks to keep offices and clinics running smoothly. Medical Assistants answer phones, greet patients, update and file patient medical records, fill out insurance forms, handle correspondence, schedule appointments, arrange for hospital admission and laboratory services, and handle billing and bookkeeping.

Clinical duties vary according to state law and include charting medical histories, recording vital signs, explaining treatment procedures to patients, preparing patients for examination, and assisting physicians during examinations. Medical Assistants test on the premises, dispose of contaminated supplies, and sterilize medical instruments. They instruct patients about medication and special diets, prepare and administer medications as directed by a physician, authorize drug refills as directed, telephone prescriptions to a pharmacy, draw blood, prepare patients for x-rays, take electrocardiograms, remove sutures, and change dressings.
