Happy fall CCI students!!! We are officially in the last quarter of the year! This October has a few focus points such as Breast Cancer Awareness and Domestic Violence Awareness. Continue reading to find out what is happening at Career Care Institute.

October Awareness

Don't bully!
Be a friend!

October is National Anti-Bullying awareness, remember to treat others with kindness. Bullying is not tolerated at Career Care Institute and needs to be reported if it occurs. Student Services is here to help reach out if you or a peer is experiencing any type of bullying.

October Awareness

OCTOBER IS DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
AWARENESS MONTH

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE IS NOT TRADITIONAL

October is Domestic Violence Awareness month. Domestic violence occurs in 1 out of 4 American households. This is a serious issue and domestic violence should never be tolerated. If you or a loved one is experiencing domestic violence notify the authorities of the situation. For a list of resources visit the links .

Student Standout

A special congratulations to our May 2020 (Lancaster) Vocational Nursing class. This class worked hard and made CCI proud at their Kaiser clinical rotations.

Medical Assistant Appreciation

October 18th-22nd is Medical Assistant appreciation week. A special shoutout to all of our Medical Assisting students. Keep up the good work and we cannot wait to see you become great medical professionals. Also thank you to our medical assisting staff for everything that you do!!!
